

Having been a ham radio operator for over 30 years, I have seen how innovations in electronic media have benefited all Americans. I have XM FM in my vehicle, and I love it. It would be more beneficial if satellite broadcasters could give local weather and traffic, and even local news broadcasts. Let's face it, the NAB is about as far behind as the ARRL has always been in supporting new technology.

Bob Argo,        KB4NK